

SILICONES and more

Characteristics

- Works fast
- Very fluid
- Long shelf life

Silicone Remover

Description

Silicone remover is a liquid which dissolves uncured silicone which facilitates cleaning of uncured silicone spills.

Technical data

This liquid dissolves fluid silicones, meaning silicones that have not been cured yet. This product contains volatile components!

Processing

Always use fluide tight gloves and work in a well ventilated room. Avoid skin or eye contact.

Packing

This product comes in a 200 gramm bottle.

Shelf life

When properly stored in a closed container, in a cold non-freezing location, this product has a shelf life of at least 1 to 2 years.

Safety

The products are harmful to your health . Contact with skin or eyes or ingestions should be avoided. Vapours of this product may cause respiratory irritation when used too long or frequently. When handling this product, wear protective gloves. Always work in a well ventilated area. For further information see safety data sheet.